Working with Residents with Disabilities; keeping the discussion on the right track

The March 18th training will include discussions with professionals trained to work in the field of Mental Health.

There are things that people can and should do to protect themselves and those they are working with from an uncomfortable and unproductive confrontation. Be in the Know when dealing with residents and applicants with mental health issues. Amanda Wells from Preble Street in Portland will conduct the training which will also include staying safe from physical harm or threatening.

It will be a good afternoon.

If you are interested in reserving a room at the Hilton Garden Inn on Wednesday Night, the hotel has guaranteed a room rate of $99.00 double occupancy. Call 784-4433 for reservations, mention the MREMA event.
